Through the shadows of that which was the beginning and by way of what will be tomorrow
I walked . . .

Being carefree,
Running, running
Through fields of wheat
With my head up in the clouds;
Flying, soaring, jumping,
Circling through the breeze
And falling to the ground.
Just feeling, and thinking, and seeing—
Rolling hills surrounded by a sea of clouds;
Stopping—wondering what it's all about
And then up I jump again
And run, running softly,
Running hard, running long,
Jumping for joy;
But stopping, to touch the wheat,
Looking at it, stop and think;
Off again, full of life
And wanting to live.
Just feeling.

Today is different from yesterday.
Tomorrow is a question I ask—Today I'll smile to greet you,
Hoping tomorrow you'll remember me—
For knowing you has made my day!
That is the tomorrow I have in question.

 Instead of their meaning,
 I remember yours.
 If this book were about you,
 I would read it over again.
 The pictures are few,
 but I see you—
 your smile, your face.
 Then I remember why I'm here, and I look at my book again—
 your voice upon my ears,
 your smile in my eyes,
 thoughts of you within me,
 and I turn the page.

FEATURES AND EVENTS

The Reigning Victory Queen

Selected to be symbolic of all our athletic victories during the 1974-1975 school year was Vera DiMascio, Victory Queen. Greenbrier West students started the ball rolling when they selected three girls from their homerooms to represent them in the annual Victory Queen Contest. The assignment of the fifty contestants selected by eighteen homerooms was simply, "Raise money for our athletic department. The girl who raises the most money in the next three weeks will be crowned Victory Queen at the Northfork game, October 4." Immediately upon selection, the girls began their efforts, and Vera came out on top. Right behind her, setting a new school record of $3,895, were seven runners-up. The queen and her runners-up are pictured on the opposite page.

For our homecoming, the Greenbrier West Cavaliers played the Collins Red Devils. Although we were defeated that rainy night the crowd still cheered on our 1974-'75 Homecoming Queen, Miss Linda Gilkeson. She was escorted by David Long and crowned by last year's queen, Miss Shelley Lemon.

The queen was chosen by popular vote of the student body with her attendants representing the popular vote of their respective classes. The queen's senior attendants were Carolyn Bennett, escorted by Glen Neal, and Vicki Young, escorted by Harry Palmer. Representing the junior class were Johnetta Estep, escorted by Mike Hunter, and Sandy Ford, escorted by Ricky Yearego. Sophomore attendants were Twanna Boone, escorted by Tony Holland, and Becky Osborne, escorted by Steve Mayes.

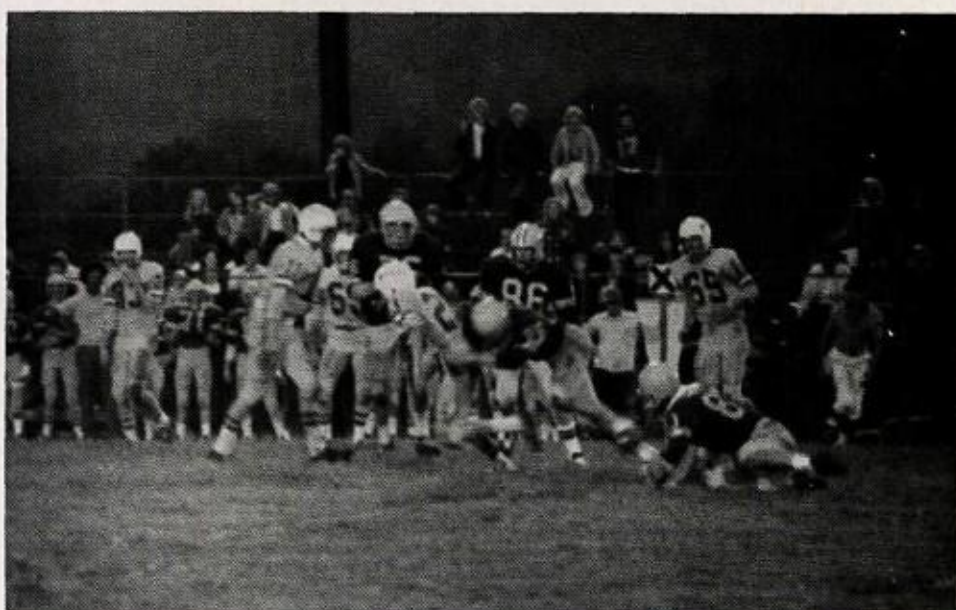

Following the game a dance was held in honor of the queen and her court in the school cafeteria.

West seniors compete for junior miss title

On November 16, 1974, two Greenbrier West seniors, Rhnea Hylton and April St. Clair, competed for the regional junior miss title. The competition, involving senior girls from Greenbrier, Fayette, Pocahontas, and Monroe counties, was held in Carnegie Hall at Lewisburg. Rhnea Hylton successfully captured one of the two region titles, entitling her to enter the state junior miss pageant at Concord College, January 18 and 19, 1975. Rhnea was also honored, receiving the award for having the highest scholastic average of all girls competing. This is the first year a West competitor has captured the scholastic award.

All proceeds went to the junior-senior prom. BELOW are scenes from the play.

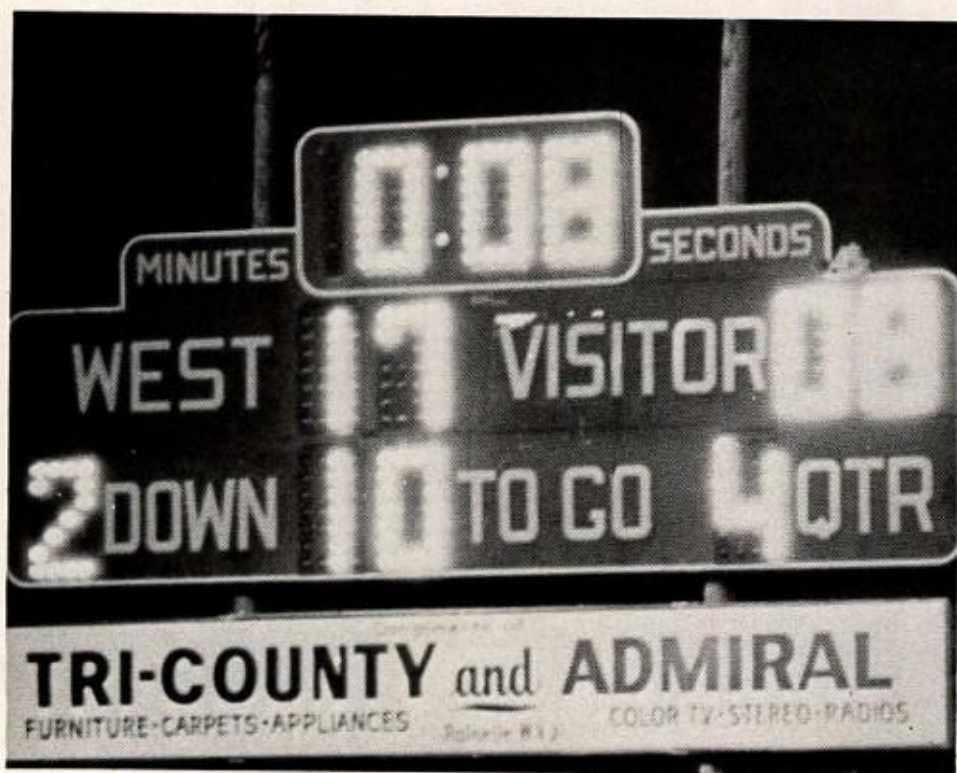

Six-year dream completed in 1974

For six years Cavaliers dreamed of their own athletic field. Then, on August 30, 1974, that dream came true. West's first football game was played on the ground where only rock and mud had been. What was the outcome of that historic event? — Greenbrier West—22; Richwood High School—7! It was on that night that the athletic field was launched into years of service for future Cavaliers.

Such a dream did not appear overnight. Many people from many walks of life shared the Cavalier dream. It is because they sacrificed their time, money, and effort that we can now call that dream a reality. Who do we thank? We can thank many, many people: Alderson National Bank, Anderson's Paving, Appalachian Power Company, Board of Education, Georgia-Pacific Company, Imperial Smokeless Coal Company, Leckie Coal Company, Darrell Fleshman, Paul Hurst, Tracy Hylton, Herb May, Cliff Neal, Bob Painter, Bob Price, and Sonny Stroud. Cavaliers are especially indebted to Mr. Bill Lewis, who secured $50,000 from the Greenbrier County Revenue Sharing Funds.

BELOW is our athletic field when the work on it was progressing. BELOW LEFT is the scoreboard, moved from the Rainelle field to the new field. A view of the track, a part of the athletic field, is shown BELOW RIGHT. TOP, Opposite page, Mrs. Charlene Green, English teacher, sells the first adult ticket on August 30. A view of the completed field is shown on the BOTTOM of the opposite page.

National Honor Society presents

Christmas assembly

On December 19, 1974, National Honor Society president, Robin Partain, became Santa Claus. Sue Sanford was Mrs. Santa Claus, and Rhnea Hylton sparkled as Rudolph. All this took place in the Christmas assembly, when "Santa the Fatty," written by Eddie Adkins, was presented to the student body of Rupert Junior High School and our own student body. Also on the program's agenda was "The Littlest Angel," by Rhnea Hylton, and a recitation by Dren Franklin of "Twas the Night Before Christmas." Several members acted out the parts as they were read.

Among other activities of the National Honor Society was the selling of tickets for a tape player, given away on December 19.

The National Honor Society consists of students selected for their achievements in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Membership requires a 3.0 grade average.

The 1974 track season raised six new school records: 180 low hurdles, 20.9, Robert Killen; 2 mile, 10:46.8, Randy Golden; 440 relay, 47.2, Mike Ross; shuttle hurdle relay, Dennis Burns; pole vault, 12½ ft., Dickie Cook; 880 relay, 2:03, Rusty Vance.

The track roster for 1974 boasted a total of twenty-six names for the gold and blue. The Cavaliers were runners-up to a strong Pocohontas County team in the regional contest. One of the highlights of the season was being victorious over Greenbrier East three times.

Robert Killen led the team in scoring, followed by Rusty Vance and Dickie Cook.

The coaches are looking forward to the 1975 track season. Our new 440 yard track is now in use. Head track coach, John Estep—assisted by Coach Robertson, and Coach Jones—says, "We hope this will inspire more boys to take part, and maybe we can improve our track record for the 1975 season."

'73-'74 Sports Wrap-up

The Cavalier Basketball Team again saw a winning season for the 1973-'74 year with a final record of 15 wins and 9 losses.

In the sectional tournament, the Greenbrier West Cavalier Basketball Team plowed over Webster Springs and Clay County, winning the sectional championship. Cavalier all-stars selected as a part of the all-tournament team during the sectional tournament were Joey Fitzwater, Lynn Sprouse, and Clifford Wicks. Moving on to the regional semi-finals, the Cavalier team was defeated by Roosevelt-Wilson, putting their season to rest.

Tops was the Cavalier team averaging 66 points per game over the opposition, averaging only 62.3 per game. The Cavaliers connected 43.2 per cent of the field goal attempts per game. They also took an average of 10.5 foul shots per game making 6.4 for a good 64 per cent.

The Cavaliers' best rebounder, Bobby Bennett, had a season total of 198 rebounds with an average of 8.2 per game. Rusty Vance proved to be the high scorer for the Cavaliers during the season with a total of 246 points and an average of 10.3 per game. In the stealing column, Joey Fitzwater lead with a total of 46 followed by Clifford Wicks with 39.

Award winners at the 1974 all-sports banquet were: Randy Golden, scoring the most points in cross country; Joey Fitzwater, leading in field goal per cent, foul shooting, and steals for basketball; Bobby Bennett, leading the basketball team in rebounds with 223; and Robert Killen, scoring the most points in track, totaling 1,215 points. Also winning awards at the banquet were Curtis McCall, being the most outstanding offensive player in football with James Edens, being the most outstanding defensive player. David Chamberlain received the Hustler Award in football with Rusty Vance receiving the same honor in basketball. In wrestling, Stanley Golden received most pins, Bruce Carter received the most team points, and Randy Golden was awarded for the most takedowns. Chosen the athlete of the year was Rusty Vance.

Joel Bonner

Dennis Burns

Kenny Eagle

Twelve seniors played their final season for the Cavaliers. A list of each senior and his accomplishments follows: Playing during his sophomore and senior years was Joel Bonner. Joel played as regular tackle during his senior year, and he represented Greenbrier West as a second team member on the All-Southern Team. Joel was also named to the All-New River Valley Conference Team.

Dennis Burns, a three-year member, served as regular quarterback during his junior and senior years. Dennis was named a second team member of the All-Southern Team, and he was chosen a member of the All-New River Valley Conference Offensive Team. Kenny Eagle was also a three-year member of the Cavalier team. A regular defensive linebacker during his junior and senior years, Kenny led the team in tackles during both years. He received honorable mention on both the All-Southern and All-New River Valley Conference teams.

Playing three years and lettering during his junior and senior years was Lee Gillespie. Lee was regular defensive middle guard during his senior year. Stanley Hollinghead, playing only his senior year, proved to be a regular defensive "monster man." Lettering as an offensive tailback during his senior year was Damon Hubbard. Damon also played Cavalier football during his sophomore year.

Fred O'Dell

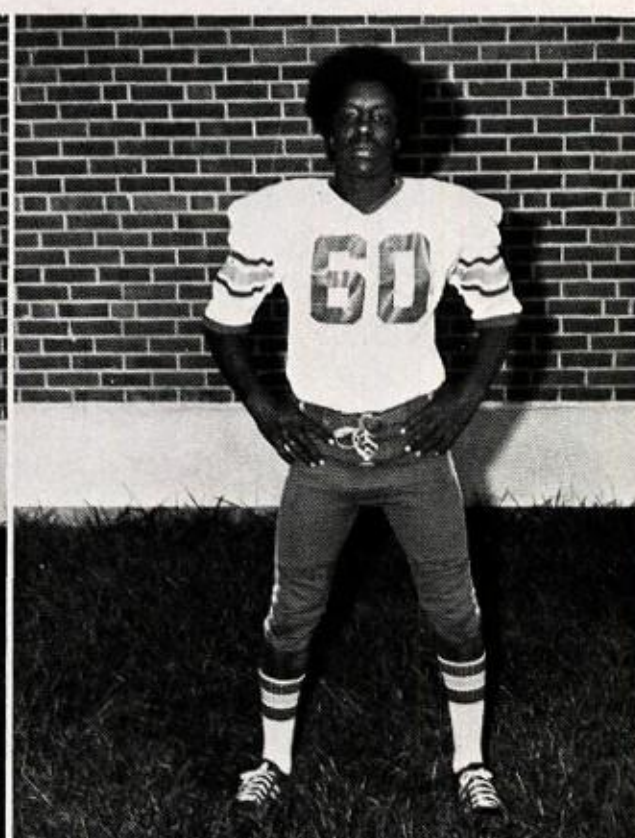

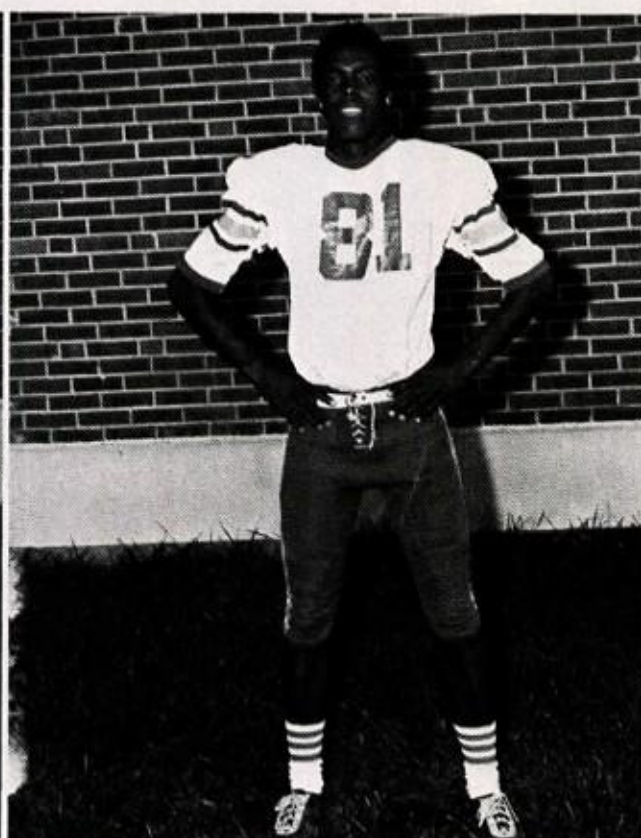

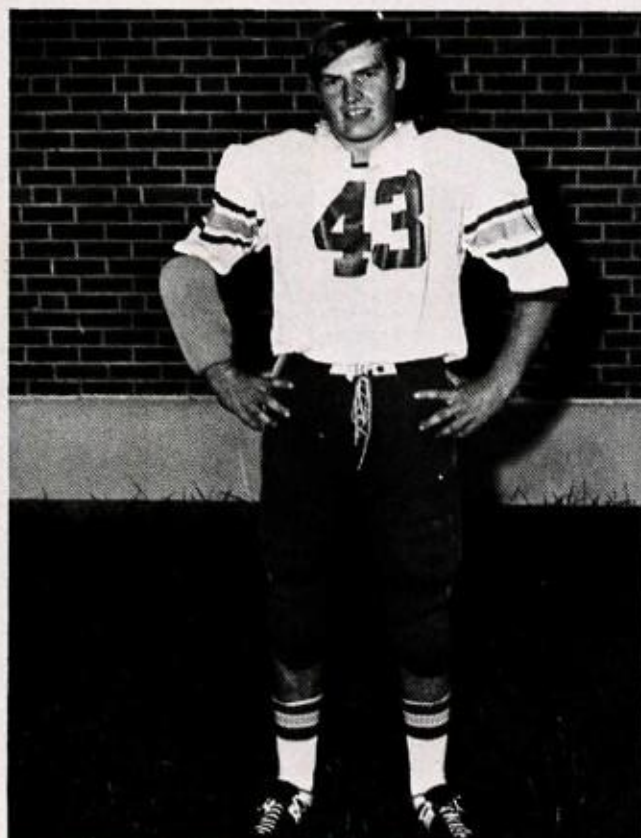

Steve Isaacs was a three-year member of the Cavalier team. Playing regular offensive center during his junior and senior years, "Doc" was one of two Cavalier team members receiving honorable mention on the three honor teams: All-Southern, All-New River Valley Conference, and Class AA All-State. Leading ground gainer during his senior year on offense was Vernon Jones, another three-year member of the Cavalier team. Vernon missed part of his sophomore and junior years due to injuries. Vernon was the regular fullback and defensive end during his senior year. Fred O'Dell was a part of the Cavalier team his junior and senior years. He lettered both years, and started as a defensive end his senior year. Harold Walters, a three-year team member, played regular tackle during his junior year, and he was a regular fullback and inside linebacker his senior year. Harold was named to the All-New River Valley Conference Team as a linebacker and also received honorable mention on the All-Southern Team. Clifford Wicks played three years for the Cavaliers. He was regular offensive split end and defensive halfback during his junior and senior years. Clifford was one of two Cavalier team members receiving honorable mention on all three of the honor teams, including All-Southern, All-New River Valley Conference, and All-State. Dennis Williams, the regular defensive middle guard his senior year, also played during his sophomore year.

MONTGOMERY OVERCOMES CAVALIERS

With injuries at key defensive positions seriously hampering the Cavalier effort, West dropped their second game of the season. The lead changed hands several times in the first two quarters leaving the half-time score a narrow 17-16 lead by West. Montgomery shut West out in the second half while scoring twice in the fourth quarter to make the final tally, Montgomery 30, West 17.

ANSTED DEFEATS WEST

West suffered the first defeat of the season, losing to Ansted 28 to 14. Ansted jumped to a 22 to 8 lead during the first half. After a scoreless third period, West put the ball into the end zone a second time. The final score of the game came on a 12 yard run by Ansted, putting the game out of reach for the Cavaliers.

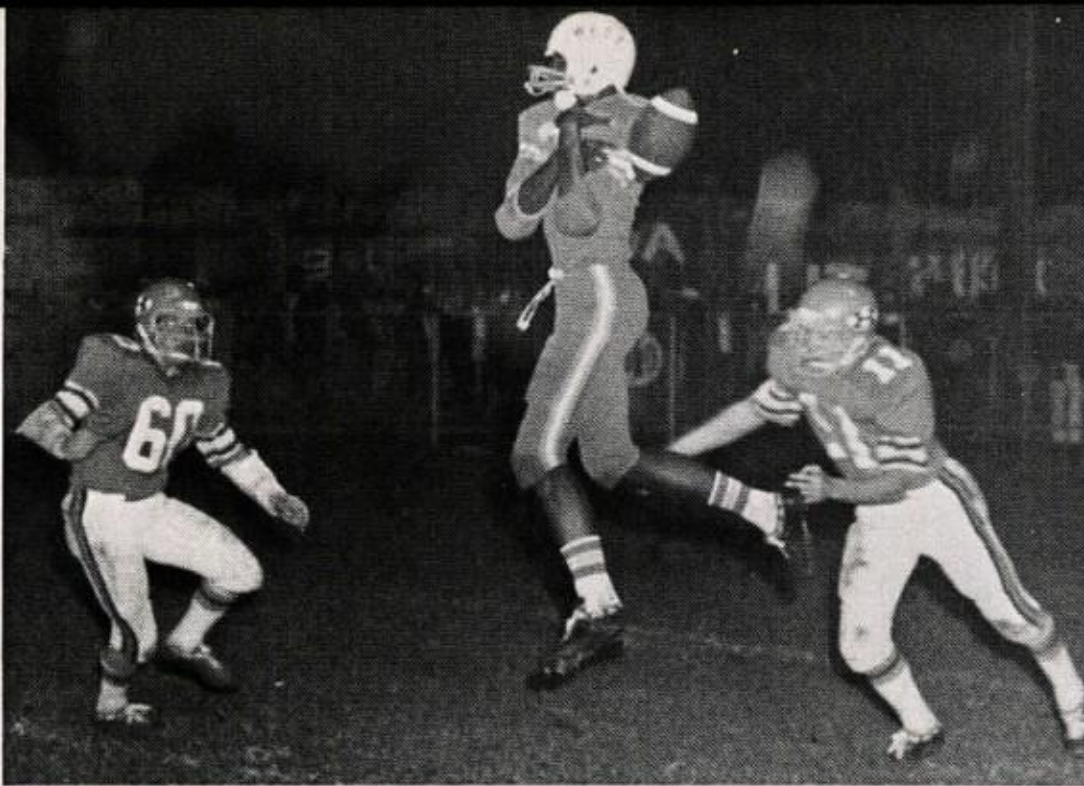

CAVALIERS DOWN WARRIORS

West scored their second victory defeating Pocahontas County 27-0 in Warrior territory. The scoring was opened by West in the second quarter with 14 points and continued with two more TD's later in the game. The defense did a superb job blanking Pocahontas County offense.

WEST TOPS LUMBERJACKS

Could it have been the new field or the new surroundings for the Greenbrier West Cavaliers as they won their opening game against Richwood with a score of 22-7? Even though Richwood scored in the first quarter, Greenbrier West came through in the second, hitting paydirt for all its 22 points.

WEST UPSETS HINTON IN OVERTIME

A 15-yard pass from quarterback Dennis Burns to Danny Windon did the trick for winning this hard fought game. Both defenses allowed neither team to score in regular time. West scored on a 15 yard pass from quarterback Dennis Burns to his receiver, Danny Windon, in overtime to defeat the Bobcats 6-0.

NORTHFORK DEFEATS THE CAVALIERS

Northfork downed the Cavaliers with a score of 37-6. Bill Bob Stroud was the lone Cavalier to hit paydirt, earning it in the second quarter. Stroud took the ball over from the five-yard mark, and a try for the extra point failed, leaving the lone TD on the Cavaliers' scoreboard.

CAVALIERS MAUL MT. HOPE

West opened the scoring as Dennis Burns passed to Bill Bob Stroud for a 40 yard touchdown pass with the extra point failing. Scoring was continued for West as they left Mount Hope scoreless at the half 24-0. The second quarter was a runaway for the Cavaliers as they scored two more touchdowns with one extra point making the final score 37-6.

CAVALIERS STOMP GRIZZLIES

West scored its fifth victory of the season with a 20-0 win over the Nicholas County Grizzlies. The fourth quarter proved successful for the West offense as Bill Bob Stroud scored the first touchdown on a five-yard run. A fumble recovery set up the next score with Vernon Jones hitting paydirt for West. The final touchdown was scored by Dennis Burns as he carried the pigskin across the goal line. Marshall Hinkle and Randy Gwinn each kicked an extra point. The Grizzlies have not scored a single point against the Cavaliers in six years.

COLLINS DOWNS WEST

In an awesome display of offensive power, Collins High of Oak Hill spoiled Greenbrier West's homecoming with a 42-0 win. The end of the first half saw Oak Hill leading 28-0 and continuing with two more touchdowns in the second half.

SPARTANS OUTSCORE HARRISMEN

The traditional cross-country rival, Greenbrier East, collided with West on our new athletic field. During most of the game Kenny Eagle, Harold Walters and Dennis Williams were anchors for the Cavalier defense. The offensive line showed Frank Bills, Joel Bonner, Steve Isaacs, Brian Jones, Danny Kashola, Clifford Wicks, James Wicks, and Danny Windon. The lone Cavalier touchdown came in the final minutes of play when Damon Hubbard returned a punt for 62 yards.

'74 Pigskin Wrap-up

Closing out the 1974 season with a record of 5 wins and 5 losses, the Cavaliers, under the direction of Coach Toby Harris, recorded their seventh football season as history. The gold and blue scored a total of 155 points for a game average of 15.5, yielding to their opposition 168 points for an average of 16.8 a game. Bill Bob Stroud, amassing a total of 46 points, led the scoring attack for the Cavaliers followed by Dennis Burns with 28, Vernon Jones with 24, Danny Windon with 18, Clifford Wicks with 12, Marshall Hinkle with 9, Lee Gillespie, Terry Hill, and Damon Hubbard with 6 points, and Randy Gwinn with 1 point. Leading in total yards rushing was Vernon Jones with 324 yards, tail-gated by Bill Bob Stroud with 306, Dennis Burns with 218, Terry Hill 175, Harold Walters with 144, Lee Gillespie with 131 and Damon Hubbard 84. Dennis Burns, record holder of passing yardage per season with 918 yards, holds a two-year yardage mark of 1,271 yards. Marshall Hinkle punting 1,220 yards for a punting average of 38 yards also headed the kick-off department with a total of 1,482 yards for an average of 49.4 yards per kick. Leading punt returners were led by Damon Hubbard with 62 yards followed by Bill Bob Stroud with 60 yards. Pass receiving was led by Clifford Wicks with a total of 2 catches for 375 yards; he also leads in career catches with 55.

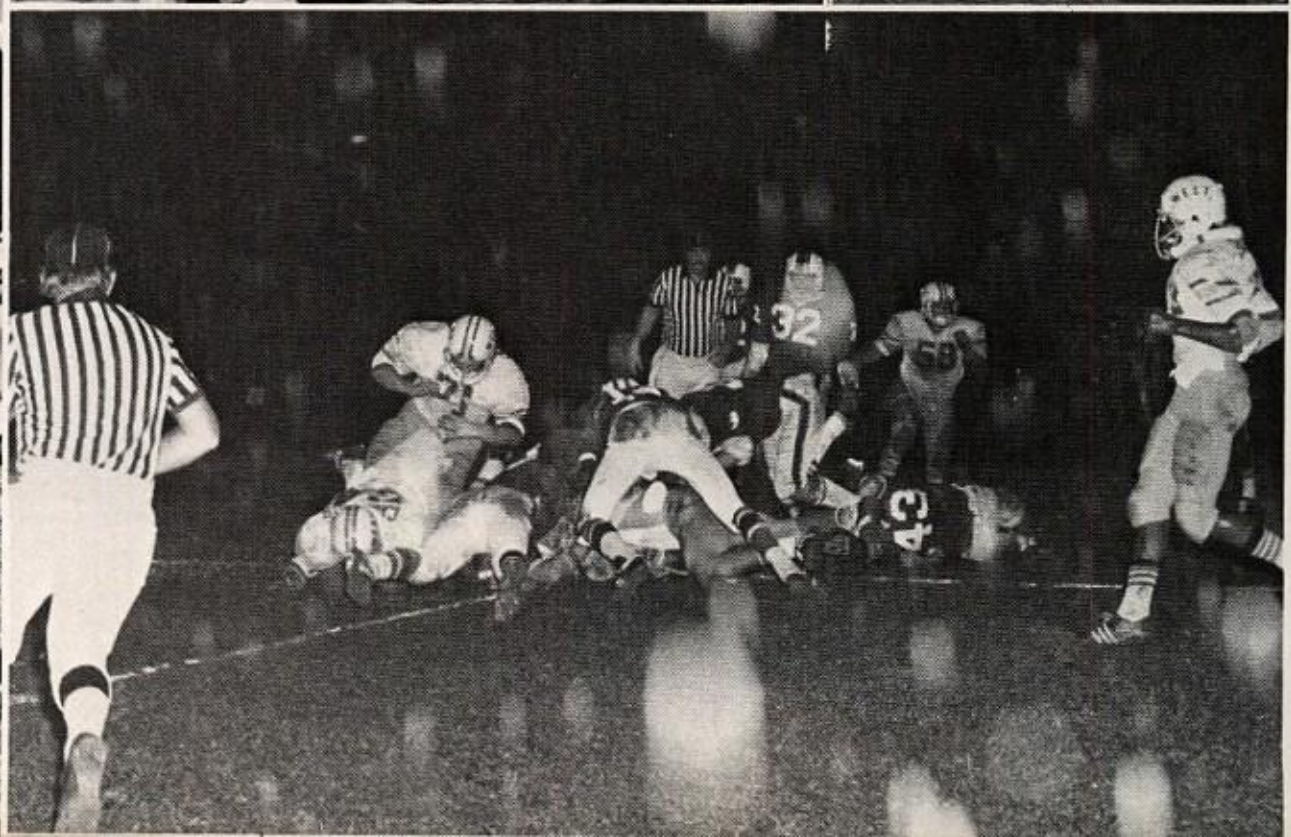

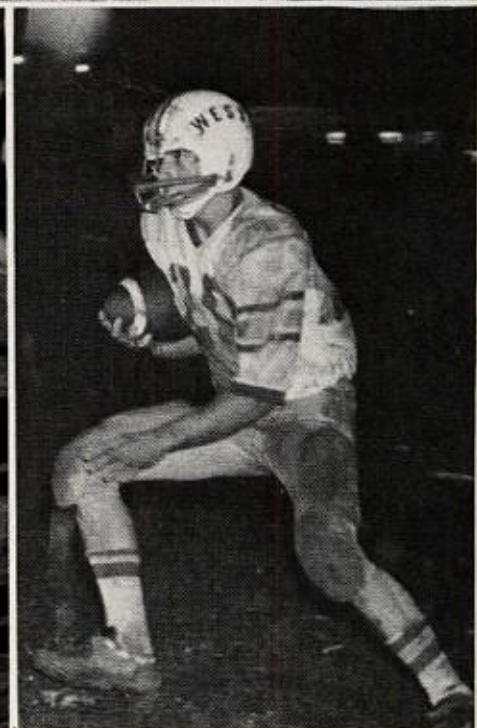

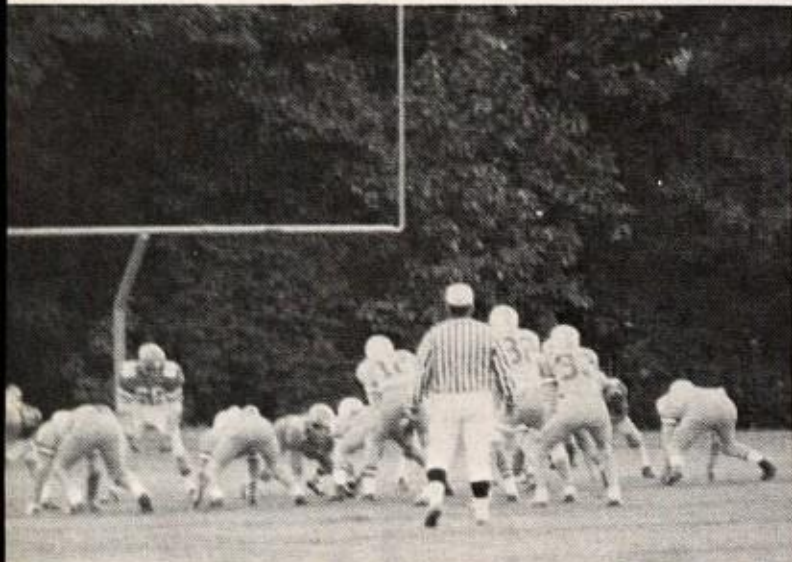

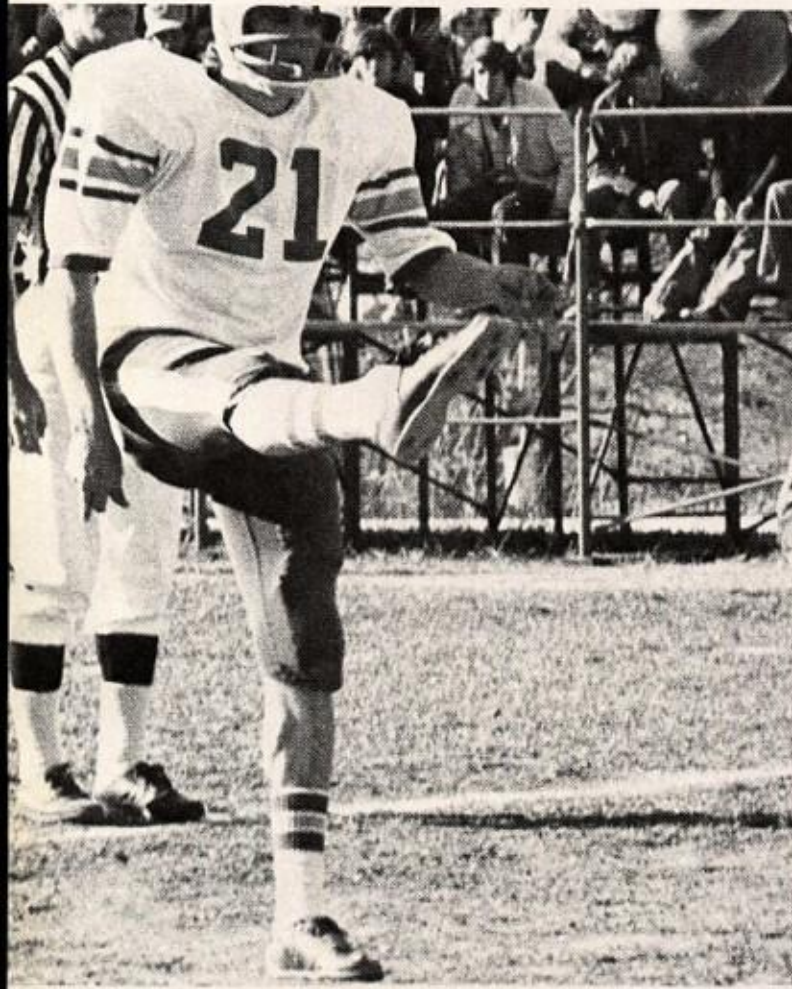

Greenbrier West's first year of participation in the New River Valley Conference brought good news! The Cavaliers shared third position with Braxton County High School in the final conference standing. Joel Bonner, Dennis Burns, and Harold Walters were selected to be on all the all-conference team; Kenny Eagle, Steve Isaacs, and Clifford Wicks earned honorable mention.

Seven Harrismen were selected to the All-Southern Team. Joel Bonner and Marshall Hinkle were selected as second unit players with Dennis Burns and Harold Walters placing as fourth unit players. Special honorable mention receivers were Kenny Eagle and Clifford Wicks with Steve Isaacs receiving honorable mention. Steve Osaacs and Clifford Wicks received honorable mention on the AA All-State team.

Cavaliers begin

a winning season

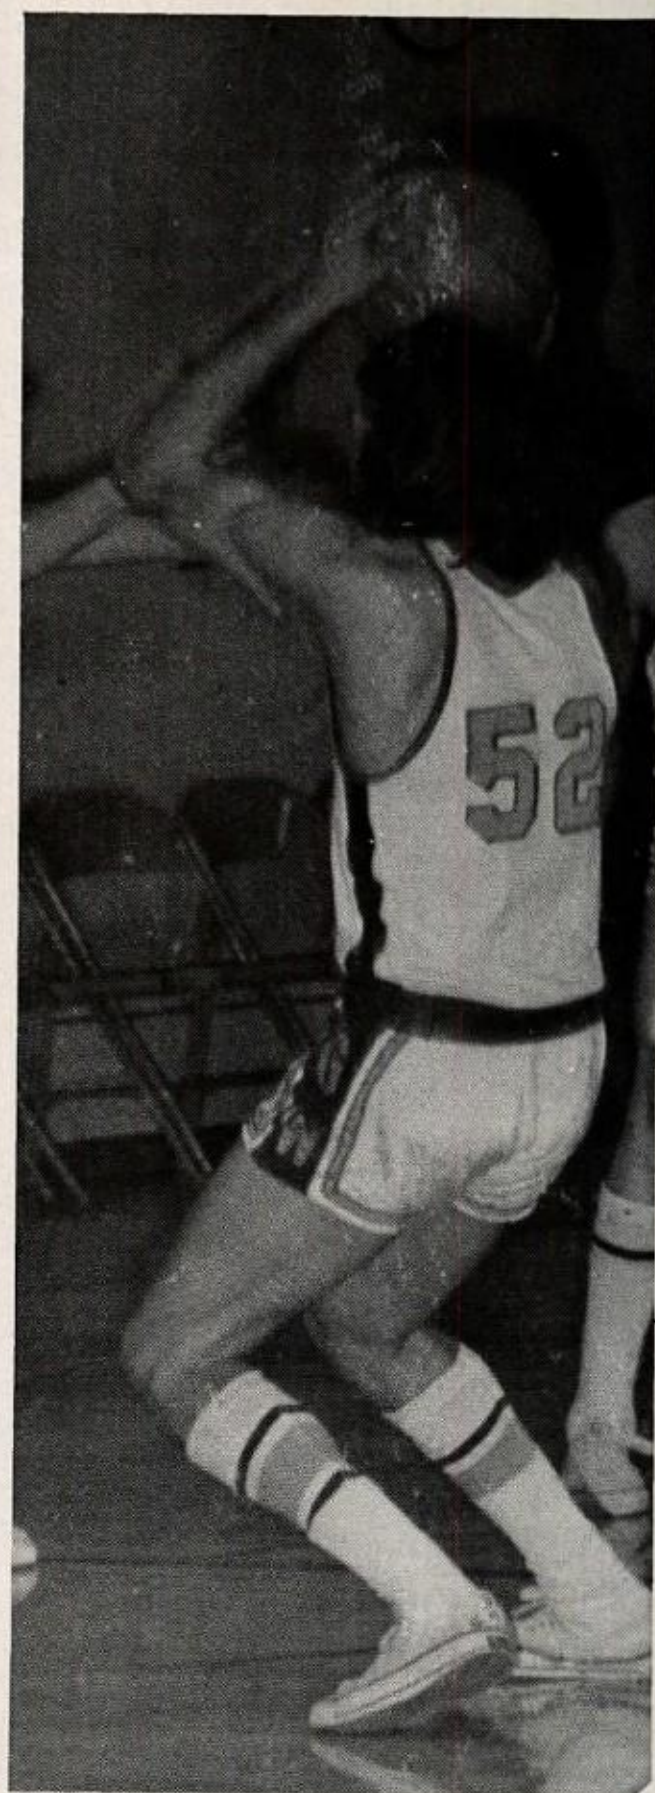

Hey blue,

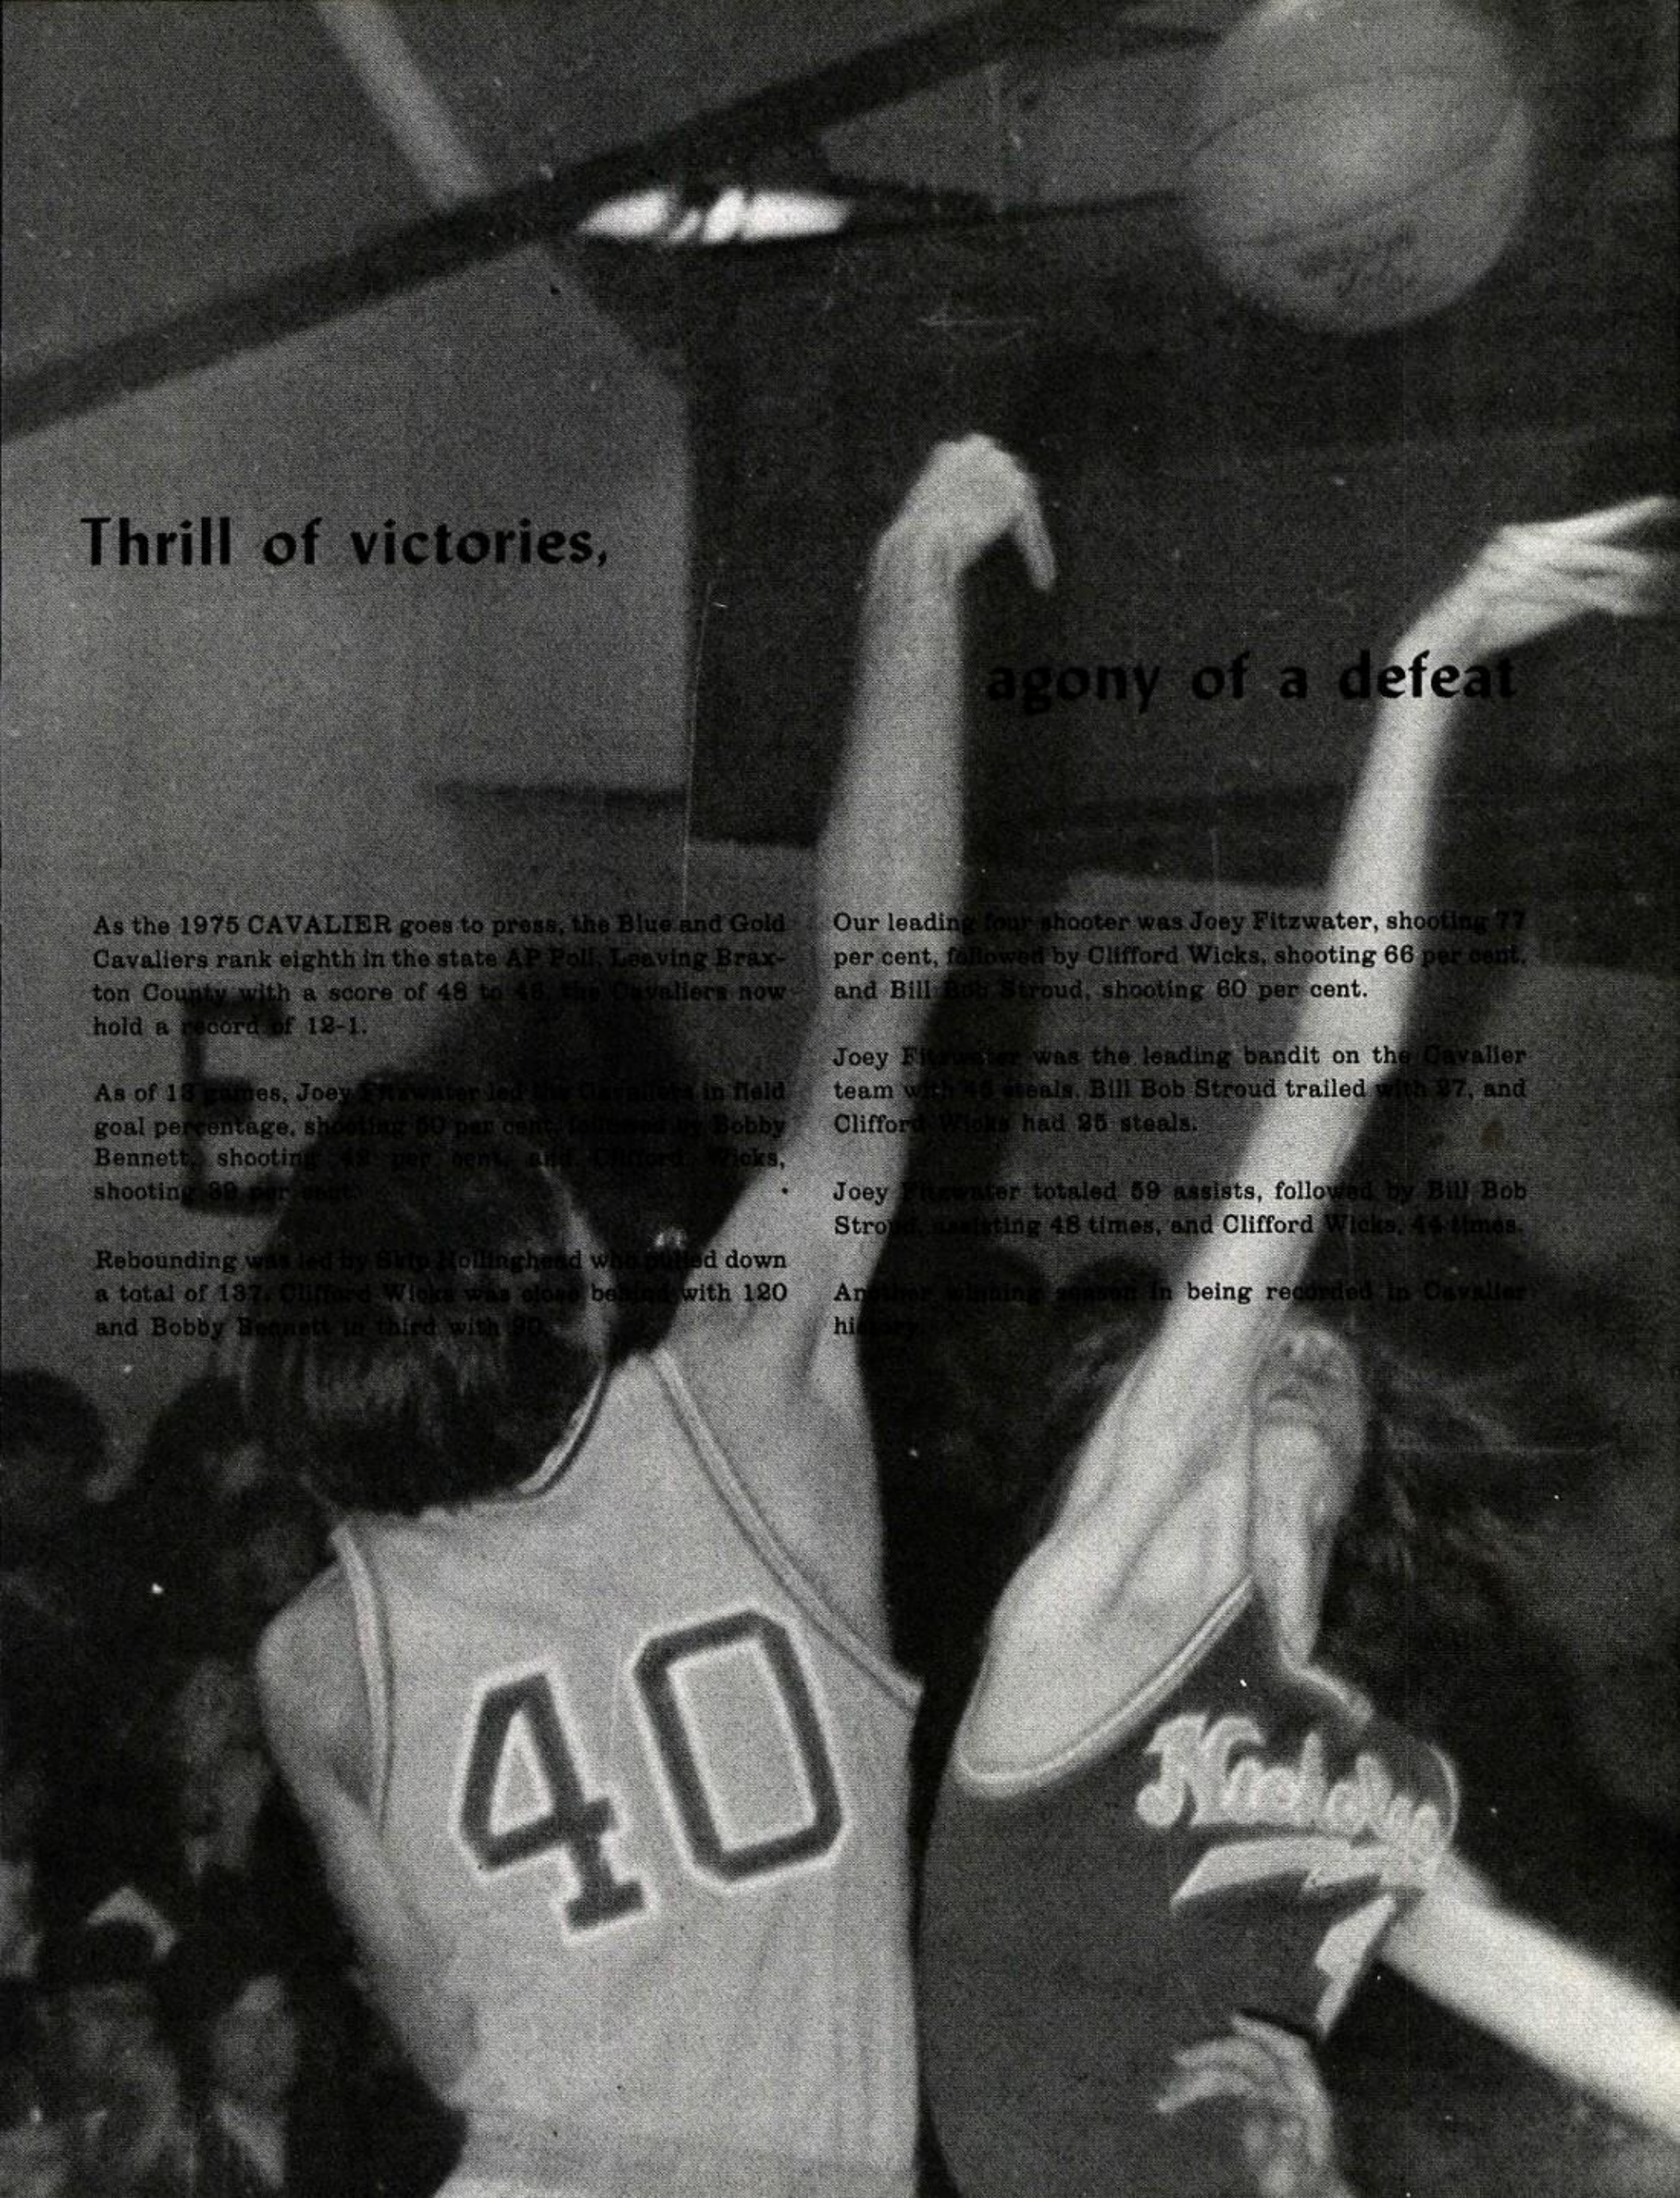

hey gold,

you look so good to me

Thrill of victories, agony of a defeat

As the 1975 CAVALIER goes to press, the Blue and Gold Cavaliers rank eighth in the state AP Poll. Leaving Braxton County with a score of 48 to 46, the Cavaliers now hold a record of 12-1.

As of 13 games, Joey Fitzwater led the Cavaliers in field goal percentage, shooting 50 per cent, followed by Bobby Bennett, shooting 49 per cent, and Clifford Wicks, shooting 39 per cent.

Rebounding was led by Skip Hollinghead who pulled down a total of 137. Clifford Wicks was close behind with 120 and Bobby Bennett in third with 90.

Our leading four shooter was Joey Fitzwater, shooting 77 per cent, followed by Clifford Wicks, shooting 66 per cent, and Bill Bob Stroud, shooting 60 per cent.

Joey Fitzwater was the leading bandit on the Cavalier team with 46 steals. Bill Bob Stroud trailed with 37, and Clifford Wicks had 25 steals.

Joey Fitzwater totaled 59 assists, followed by Bill Bob Stroud, assisting 48 times, and Clifford Wicks, 44 times.

Another winning season in being recorded in Cavalier history.

H I Girls' Basketball—First Ever

Brenda Brown, Joyce Winkfield, Cathy Sublett, Val Vance, Rhnea Hylton, Linda Gilkeson, Faye Hollinghead, Vivian Chamberlain, Johnetta Estep, Deanna Houchins, Fern Terry, Jewell McClung, Patty Dix. Coach: Mrs. Hazel Franklin.

Although Greenbrier County has not yet mandated girls' extra-curricular activities, Greenbrier West went on record and set the pace by establishing a girls' basketball team this year. However, the girls were able to play only a few games. The 1974-75 season was a winning one for the newly formed team, coached by Mrs. Hazel Franklin. In their first season the girls attained a record of 3-1, losing only to Braxton County 25-23. Total points scored during the year was 116, while they permitted their opposition to score only 101. Players scoring for West were Brenda Brown—2, Patty Dix—2, Johnetta Estep—20, Sandy Ford—6, Deanna Houchins—2, Shirley Johnson—4, Shelby Loudermilk—8, Jewell McClung—2, Cathy Sublett—10, Val Vance—4.

Cavalier girls boast their first season a winning one

Ten seconds and then the last game will be done.
But at last I can say the victory is won.

After all our practicing to do our best Just to make a name for our girls at West.

So now it's all over the season and all But for some it will start again next fall.

For others—there are memories folding into the past
Of all the good times that were meant to last.

. . . And one day close to the end of my journey I found the joy of remembering.

It's never good-by when your school days end,
You just inventory your good times and friends,
And store them away in your memory marked "Keep".
Then, through the future years, what pleasures you reap . . .
REMEMBERING!

Debbie Miller "finds the joy of remembering" as she pauses to look at a copy of the CAVALIER 1974 in the school library.

A long and important journey has almost reached its end. With the close of the 1974-'75 school year, the Class of '75 will say good-by to a life that has been a constant part of them for twelve years. This final year will be long remembered.

As year's come and go, memories often fade. Because this year has been too wonderful to forget, we have published for you the 1975 CAVALIER. We have attempted to store your good and bad times within the pages of this book.

This book "happened" with many sacrifices from many people. Our faithful advertisers must not go unpraised. Without their devotion to Greenbrier West, we would not have this yearbook to remember by. I must also thank my staff and advisor for their hard work; YOU made it all possible.

Take care of the CAVALIER, for it will someday provide an instant replay of this year, and remember:

Good-by means, "God be with you."
It's hard to say good-by, of course;
But if you and I can keep in mind
What we are really saying,
It's not hard at all!
The memories of caring and sharing
Will long be there
To draw upon when nights are lonely, or spirits droop,
or courage lags.
And that keeps us hanging on—
After we've said, "Good-by."

Our mission will be accomplished only if many times in the future you turn these pages and "find the joy of remembering." As seniors, juniors, and sophomores, we have a long future ahead of us. But let us not forget our year together.

Good luck,

Eddie Adkins

I looked back and recaptured my times of both victory and defeat . . .

i worry too much!
i should tackle each day as it comes and hope for a touchdown and dream
for that extra point.

. . . Recalling the moments that made the time go so fast.

Now that I've seen,
I can do.
Now that I've done,
I can feel.
Now that I've felt,
I can cry.
Now that I've cried,
I can grow.

I saw the reflections of the school I love despite the cruel words I uttered while there.

At times,
I am troubled by the memories
you left in my mind.
They haunt my waking moments, waiting to pounce upon me at some unexpected time and place.
And though I've tried to erase these unwanted thoughts,

I find it impossible.
I still remember the good and the bad,
all the happiness
brought on by the sad.
I guess I always will . . .
There will be a place for you
no one can fill.
—N. Williard

We're so close,
 yet so far away.
 You touch my hand,
 But we both know it's ended
 —not by our choice.
 Walking away,
 I sense a touch of sadness in you.
 Should I stop? But,
 nothing's to be done.
 And your shadow fades deeply into the night.
 —P. Frack

It was over so quickly.

Now, memories must fill the empty walks I am leaving . . .

Somewhere
In the future
Close or far away
There is something
Pure and beautiful—Something to make Living worthwhile—Something, if it takes
A lifetime of search,
I will find.

If your hands get cold and there's no one there to warm them;
If your shoulders shake and there's no one there to hold them;
If your countenance should droop and there's no one with a smiling face;
If your heart feels like singing and there's no one you can sing with;
If your voice feels like talking and there's no one you can talk with;
If you feel like laughing and there's no one there that gets the joke;
If you lie awake, thinking you miss me, know then, I miss you too.

—M. N.

A life without a dream
has no success.
For success is no more than a goal reached and a dream made real.
So dream, my friend,
and make that dream come true.

Oh, hail to thee dear Greenbrier Wes!
This song our hearts and voices sing.
Rich and great thy future be,
Our love and praise we give to thee.
As the time begins to fade
The years of happy friendships made
To memories of gold and blue,
To Alma Mater we'll be true.
